General Work and Employment Policies

IMMIGRATION LAW COMPLIANCE

Federal Law requires all employees to present documentation confirming their identity and eligibility to work in the United States. New employees and rehires must complete the I-9 Employment Eligibility Verification Form within three business days of their start date.

INTRODUCTORY EVALUATION PERIOD

All new employees are subject to a 90-day introductory period. Your performance will be carefully evaluated during this period. At the end of the introductory period, you may be offered a position as a regular full-time or regular part-time employment will be terminated.

This policy in no way alters the at-will employment relationship: Griffin Contracting may end the employment relationship at any time during or after the introductory period.

DRUG FREE WORKPLACE

Griffin Contracting is committed to enforcing a drug-free workplace environment. Possession of alcohol, illegal drugs, or a controlled substance is prohibited on Company property or in any location in which the employee represents the Company for business purposes. Employees are expected to report to work on time in appropriate mental and physical condition. The unlawful manufacturing, distribution, dispensation, possession or use of a controlled substance on Company premises or while conducting Company business is absolutely prohibited. Violation can lead to termination, with or without notice, and incidents can be turned over to the proper authorities.

ATTENDANCE

Griffin Contracting expects all employees to conduct themselves in a professional manner during their employment. This includes practicing good attendance habits. All employees should regard coming to work on time, working their shift as scheduled and leaving at the scheduled time as essential functions of their job, i.e., good attendance habits are an integral part of every employee's job description.

Among other things, "good attendance habits" include the following:

- Appearing for work no earlier than 5 minutes prior to the start of the shift and no later than the start of the shift;
- Being at your work station ready for work by the start of the shift;
- Remaining at your work station unless the needs of the job require being elsewhere, except during authorized breaks (including restroom breaks);
- Taking only the time normally allowed for breaks
- Remaining at work during your entire shift, unless excused by a supervisor or manager
- Not leaving work until the scheduled end of your shift unless excused by a supervisor or manager,
- Leaving promptly at the end of your shift unless you have been given advance permission by your supervisor or manager to work past that point; and
- Calling in and personally notifying your supervisor or another member of management if you are going to be either absent or tardy, unless a verifiable emergency makes it impossible for you to do so.

GIVING NOTICE OF ABSENCE OR TARDINESS

Under some circumstances, an employee's absence or tardiness may be excused, but only if that employee gives proper notice of such a problem before the start of their shift. Griffin Contracting needs advance notice of attendance problems so that other arrangements can be made to cover an employee's absence if necessary. "Proper notice" means that the employee will call Griffin Contracting at a designated telephone number prior to the start of the employee's shift and personally notify their supervisor or another member of management about the problem, unless a verifiable emergency makes it impossible to do so. Office staff has been instructed to route all such calls to supervisory personnel. If you fail to give proper notice of attendance problems in advance as explained in this policy, you may be subject to disciplinary action, up to and possibly including discharge.

RECORDING HOURS WORKED

All non-exempt employees are required to clock in and out daily using the ProContractor Mobile App under daily time cards indicating all hours worked. Time cards must be synced daily. This will allow supervisors adequate time to review and make any necessary adjustments, modifications to cost codes, equipment usage or job codes. Supervisors have authority to respectively define and dictate “adequate time”. Vacation days, sick days, holidays, and absences such as jury duty, must be specifically noted on the time cards for days on which they occur.

BREAKS

Meal Periods: an unpaid 1-hour meal period is provided in the middle of an eight-hour workday. All employees are required to take a 30-minute meal break within a 6-hour work period. Meal break schedules must be approved by your supervisor and are generally taken on a staggered schedule so that your absence does not create a problem for co-workers or customers. Meal breaks should be taken near the work site or for drivers along the route that they are hauling.

Rest Breaks: Employees may take two paid 15-minute rest breaks in each complete workday; one in the morning and the other in the afternoon. Employees are not allowed to accumulate rest breaks and/or use them to extend their lunch period or shorten the workday. Rest breaks will be scheduled by your supervisor based on the needs and applicable state regulations.

JOB ABANDONMENT
